GARRARD'S STUMP SPEECH.

His Views on Pending Questions of State and Nation—Wrote for Senator.

The Carson Union publishes the annexed summary of Major Garrard's speech before the Carson Anti-Chinese League last Saturday evening:

Major Garrard was then vociferously called for and mounted the rostrum. He congratulated the League upon the action it had taken and the ticket it had nominated for the support of the people of Ormsby county. The Labor movement in one guise and another is world wide. Our movement in this county is in unison with labor everywhere to strike off the shackles which have been forged for it. In New York City Henry George has been nominated for Mayor with the preliminary endorsement of 34,500 workingmen, and his candidacy attracts the attention of the people all over the Union. He believed that George had a good chance of election to the Mayoralty of that great city. All over New England, the West, the Pacific Coast and the South this great Labor movement is taking on gigantic proportions and a determined attitude. It would not surprise him to see Henry George yet elected President of the United States. [Applause.] These things encourage us here at home. We are not alone. California is looking at this movement in Ormsby county with a degree of interest of which we are scarcely aware. We are a part, and under the circumstances, an important part and outpost of the great movement in the interests of free labor. As the Major proceeded with his powerful speech the packed audience grew more and more excited and vociferous in its responses to his telling points. He referred to our local matters and said it was the duty of every good citizen to support this ticket from beginning to end. No ticket is expected in the first instance to meet the first choice of everybody. If such could be the case there would be no end of primaries and conventions. There may have been discontent with the present ticket, but on cool reflection the verdict was that all through it was the very best ticket that could have been nominated. He proposed to support it from James R. Judge to James D. Roberts without a single exception. [Applause.] Nothing can defeat this ticket, said he, except "cold coin." Look at this matter for one moment. Here in Nevada where the people are struggling and were peacefully undertaking to redeem themselves from the outrageous oppression and misgovernment to which they have been subjected and under which for years they have been disgraced in Congress; when they were trying and hoping to do something for themselves, comes Bill Stewart as the benchman of the Central Pacific or Southern Pacific and of Stanford and Huntington; uninvited by a single man in this State, and sit him down to bulldoze and buy the Senatorship from this people. He has no money of his own. He is as poor as any man in this county or State. The Central Pacific puts up the money for him and intends to outrage the people of this State as they never were outraged before. "I am," said the Major, "a Democrat of course, but I do not care who is elected so long as he is a bona fide resident of this State. I should prefer a Democrat, but if the Republicans have the Legislature let them elect Wren or Hawley or Powning or any man who will truly represent this State. In fact, with my poor, little influence, I have promised to do all I can, Democrat though I be, to induce the Republicans to elect Tom Wren, if they elect anybody." [Vociferous applause.] Now this election is coming on and Bill Stewart and the railroads intend to buy and bulldoze it their way at whatever cost. For one man I propose never to tolerate that kind of work in this country. I am beholden to no man for the Senatorship. I am contented if the people are allowed to vote their own sentiments. But if Coffin, Yerington, the boss, (Laughter) Bill Stewart or any of the rest of that crowd are found buying or bribing the voters of this county to forswear their own freedom and to betray you and me, I say that this people should arouse themselves and hang them as high as Haman, (Great sensation and deafening applause.) And I say to you that for one man, if that kind of work goes on and the laws of this land are defied by that crowd of men in that way, I will with that good right arm of mine help to pull on that rope.

To EXTINGUISH BURNING CLOTHING.—J. Marshall, F. R. S., says that if a woman whose clothing is on fire will lie down in a horizontal position, the flames will become for the time nearly harmless, and time will thus be gained for further action. If, then, we would suggest, she has the presence of mind to turn over upon the lighted garment, the flame will be nearly extinguished. Any bystander might then easily put out the fire by means of some woolen garment, coat or rug, thrown over the sufferer, to exclude the air. The above writer offers a good suggestion for fixing this useful fact upon the minds of the young. He recommends that there be at every school as an example of the effect of this mode of action, once every term, by means of two upright models, prepared alike and set on fire simultaneously; the one being thrown down after two seconds, and the other after thirty seconds. Example would be better than precept, we think, in this instance.

It is now said that Stevenson's majority will reach four hundred in Washoe county and two hundred and Douglass. —Enterprise.

THE DAKOTA OUTRAGE—SHALL WE HELP IT ALONG.

Enterprise.

There is not a patriotic citizen west of the Missouri river who does not feel a tinge of shame and humiliation at the attitude of the Democratic majority in the House of Representatives, at the last session of Congress, in its refusal to admit Southern Dakota into the Union as a State. No such outrage has ever before been perpetrated on so slim a pretext.

During the struggle for the maintenance of slavery in years gone by, the admission of new States into the Union was more than once retarded through sectional jealousies involving not merely party success, but the protection of social and industrial conditions affecting a solid phalanx of States. It remained for the Democratic party of to-day, with its conspicuous lack of honor and official decency, to refuse the admission of a State into the Union for the avowed and only purpose of securing four additional years of party spoils and plunder.

Southern Dakota has an area of more than double the acreage of Ohio, and a population of about 275,000. It has public schools and colleges, churches and asylums, growing cities and railroads, and thousands of happy homes where newspapers are read and family prayers are said. Conditions so widely in contrast with the Democratic slums of the East, suggested that a majority of the people of Southern Dakota must be Republican in politics, and a Democratic House of Representatives refused them the right to Statehood.

The Constitution submitted to Congress by the people of Dakota was unobjectionable, and fulfilled every requirement of Federal law and precedent. Its population was nearly five times larger than the population of Nevada, and was swelling in numbers at the rate of 5,000 or 10,000 per month. The Territory was free from debt, was governed by just and wholesome laws, and its people—drawn largely from the Eastern and Middle States—were shown to be unusually intelligent and industrious. But a Democratic House coldly and shamelessly resolved to extend the years of their disfranchisement, and for better reason than that the most of them seemed too respectable to be Democrats.

The bill for the admission of Dakota passed the Republican Senate, with a substantial Democratic opposition recorded against it; but the Democratic leaders smiled when it reached the House. It was referred to a committee instructed in its political duties by a quiet caucus, and there the effort will be made to keep it until after the next Presidential election.

Meanwhile, the people of Dakota, with their great and growing interests, will be compelled to restrict their legislation to the lines of territorial limit, and entrust their litigation to the inadequate judicial machinery with which the Territories are provided by the Federal Government. Nevada was virtually driven to premature Statehood by the corruption and incompetency of its Federal Judges, and the people of Dakota, we understand, are bowing under the weight of a similar judicial affliction. But what are the troubles of the Dakotans to a Democratic Congress? Rather than give them a voice in the next Presidential election, Carlisle, Randall and Company would give their fields over to lie and pillage. Would it be well to send a Democrat to Congress from Nevada to help keep Dakota out of the Union?

Practical Suggestions.

There is no farm interest that tends more surely to profit than sheep on lands suited to grazing, especially where weeds or bushes interfere with successful cultivation, or on lands too rough to till easily.

After frost has pinched the grasses they are no longer sufficient for cattle that must be kept in good flesh, nor for cows giving milk. Add enough grain and the grass will serve much better to maintain good condition.

The fact that corn-meal tends to produce fat rather than milk should not be forgotten by the dairyman. For a little while it will make an increased flow of very rich milk. Then the cow will begin to fatten and dry off. To fatten a cow while milking her, corn is the best of the grains; but for making milk it is inferior to oats, barley, or millet-feed.

It has been found by experiment that meal will pass through the digestive organs quicker than hay, and that if the meal is fed to an animal on an empty stomach it passes away before it is fully digested; but if fed after hay it becomes mingled with it, and more benefit is derived. Do not allow animals to take much water immediately after feeding.

Mr. Thomas Meehan says that where he sees a farmer who has no love for the beautiful, for flowers, for home comforts, and pleasant surroundings, he usually finds no happiness, and an unworthy member of society. He is not prepared to say that such are always the inevitable results, but the tendencies are in that direction.

Mr. H. B. Gurler, a well-known dairyman of Illinois, claims that by changing from Summer to Winter dairying he has raised the average net profit on forty cows from $15 to $40 per head. His Winter ration is early-cut clover and timothy, with equal parts by measure of wheat bran and corn-meal. One Winter his milk suddenly shrank from 355 to 750 pounds, and on ascertaining the cause he found that late had been substituted for early-cut hay.

Resolved, That the Legislative nominees of this Convention are pledged to Ormsby county men and measures in all matters touching Ormsby county which may come before the session of the Legislature.—Ormsby County Republican Platform.

THE NEVADA QUEEN.

The Coming Bonanza of Tuscarora.

The Times-Review says:

Articles were filed in the County Clerk's office of San Francisco, a few days ago, for the incorporation of the Nevada Queen, of this district, with the following officers: Directors—George W. Grayson, John F. Cassell, Steve Robins, J. E. Dixon and George W. Hickox.

Subsequently George W. Hickox was chosen President, W. E. Deane Secretary, and F. F. Coffin Superintendent. The property of this company has become famous all over the coast through the recent Squabble Gulch litigation now happily terminated, between the May Queen and Nevada owners.

The ground is known to be exceedingly rich, there being at least a half dozen shafts upon the two locations in every one of which pay ore was found. The Superintendent, Mr. F. F. Coffin, an experienced miner at one time a resident of this vicinity and who is familiar with the ores of this section, arrived last evening and will at once proceed to select a suitable location for a working shaft which will be commenced without delay. The erection of hoisting works will immediately follow, and Squabble Gulch will present a lively appearance before snow flies to say great extent. The mining outlook of this section has never looked brighter, even in the palmiest days of the Grand Prize, Belle Isle and Navajo, and the Times-Review hazards the prediction that the bullion shipments from the North Bell Isle and its immediate neighbor, the Nevada Queen, will astonish the world by their extent before the close of the coming year.

A FEMALE GOLD MINE.—There is a woman in Camden, Ohio, from whose body at different points, there have been taken gold bars, or rather needles. These needles have varied in length from a half-inch to four or five inches, and are in thickness a little larger than a darning needle. The only solution offered is that in early years she swallowed a gold coin, or piece of gold coin, which by some action of the gastric juices of the stomach, was dissolved and circulated through the system, then, by some action of the blood, precipitated.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

BREVITIES.

This is fine weather only the nights are a little cool and frosty.

The Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, will be instituted this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Mayberry bridge will be completed and ready for travel before the first of November.

Col. A. C. Ellis will address the people of Washoe county on the political issues of the day next Monday evening.

All Knights of Pythias should attend the regular meeting of Amity Lodge, No. 8, this evening, when the Lodges of Virginia, Carson and Dayton will pay it a fraternal visit.

In the political excitement don't forget the Junior Hose Co.'s dance to be given on the 5th of next month. The boys are short of funds and you should help them. Tickets only one dollar.

The Theater was crowded last night to listen to the Hon. G. W. Cassidy, and his remarks were well received by the attentive audience. We will give a resume of his remarks to-morrow morning.

The Miners' Union of Silver City will give their annual ball in their hall in Silver City on Friday evening, October 29, 1886. The best of music will be in attendance, and everything is being done to make this affair a success.

The funeral of A. A. Longley yesterday was well attended. A large conourse of friends followed the remains to the grave, there being 97 carriages in line. The funeral was under the auspices of Reno Lodge, No. 13, F. & A. M., of which he was an honored member.

PYTHIAN EXCURSION.

High Jinks in Reno To-night.

The Enterprise, of yesterday, says:

To-morrow (Friday) night the Knights of Pythias of Storey, Lyon and Ormsby counties will pay a fraternal visit to their brothers of Amity Lodge, No. 8, at Reno. A special train of three cars has been chartered for the occasion, which will be attached to the regular mail train, leaving here at 5:20 P. M. About 150 Knights from Virginia, Carson and Dayton will participate in the affair, and as the Knights of Pythias of Nevada never do things by halves our friends at Reno, especially the members of Amity Lodge, No. 8, will experience both a pleasant and a lively time. W. H. M. Cobb, Grand Chancellor of Nevada, has been preparing this fraternal expedition for some weeks past, and given the details his personal attention. Grand Chancellor Cobb is a splendid executive officer, young, active and energetic. He takes special pride in Pythianism, and during his incumbency as head of the Order in this State, will inaugurate a series of fraternal visits between all the Lodges of the jurisdiction, thus engendering a sentiment of brotherhood and good feeling among the members of the Order, and by a united effort enhance the success of the organization, now one of the strongest and most popular secret societies on the face of the earth. M. C. McMillan, P. D. D. G. C., has charge of the Comstock end of the affair, and his judicious labors in that direction have been fruitful of success. Everything looks favorably, and the visit of the Virginia, Carson and Dayton Knights to their brethren at Reno, will form one of those peculiarly happy episodes in the history of the Order in Nevada, which will be thoroughly appreciated and long and happily remembered by all who may have the pleasure of attending. The special train will return early Saturday morning.

PARKER'S NEW MAP OF NEVADA.

—THIS NEW AND BEAUTIFUL—

MAP OF THE STATE,

Has Just Been Published, and is Now Ready for Sale.

It has been completed with great care in order to insure its being strictly correct, and furnishes a vast fund of valuable information regarding the topography of the State. There never has been a Map of the State prepared heretofore worthy of the name, and it is intended to fill a long-felt want on the part of citizens. It has been lithographed at large expense by the famous publishing house of Rand, McNally & Co., of Chicago, and does great credit to their well-known skill in the art. The Map is drawn on a scale of 12 miles to the inch, and shows all surveyed Townships up to date of issue, also all Mountain Ranges, Valleys, Rivers, Creeks, Brooks, Streams and Lakes; it also shows the correct position of all Indian and Military Reservations, and all Cities, Towns and Settlements; also all Railroads and the principal Wagon Roads. The County Boundaries are also depicted with absolute correctness, which is something that no other Map has even approximated to.

The Map is printed on the best of paper, and mounted with stick, top and bottom, with tape on edges and varnished; it is also printed on thin, strong paper, which folds up in stout covers for pocket form. The Counties are printed with different colors, making it altogether an ornament to any school house, office, saloon or private room, as well as valuable for instruction and reference.

The Map has been compiled by John W. Parker, the Chief Draughtsman of the United States Surveyor-General's Office at Reno, who holds the copyright, and is the condensation of all information on file in that office, as well as the celebrated War Department Maps prepared by Lieutenant Wheeler; he has also had at his command other recent and reliable data on which to rely, and the Map is issued to the public in the firm belief that it is in every way authentic.

The Price of the Map is $5.00,

And copies will be sent to any address, postpaid, upon receipt of the money. Parties ordering will be careful to state which style is desired—mounted or pocket form.
